PALM SUNDAY

HOSANNA

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the king of Israel!

(John 12:13)

Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday is the Sunday preceding Easter Sunday. On this day we commemorate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. It begins the series of observances focusing on the events of Holy Week. This Sunday is also often referred to as Passion Sunday, marking the beginning of the passion or suffering of Jesus leading to and including His Crucifixion. The liturgical colour for Palm Sunday is purple.

Scripture Text

English Services at 8.30AM and 10.30AM

Mark 11:1-11

¹ As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, ² saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³ If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.’”

⁴ They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, ⁵ some people standing there asked, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” ⁶ They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. ⁷ When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. ⁸ Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. ⁹ Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted,

“Hosanna!”

“Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”

¹⁰ “Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!”

“Hosanna in the highest heaven!”

¹¹ Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Church and Society in a Post-Truth Era is the title of the ETHOS Seminar 2024. In 2016, Oxford Dictionary named ‘post-truth’ as the word of the year. In a sense, this development is not surprising. Numerous social commentators have noticed increasing scepticism over objective facts offered by experts and authority figures. What are the implications of this significant shift in cultural sensibility for the church and society in Singapore? This Ethos seminar seeks to explore this and other related issues.

The speakers for this seminar are Mr Edwin Tong, Minister for Culture, Community and Youth and Second Minister for Law, and Dr Mark Chan, Professor of Systematic Theology at Trinity Theological College. It will be held at Bible House, 7 Armenian Street on Wednesday, April 3, 2024 at 7.30pm – 9.30pm. For more information, please visit this LINK.

15th Harmony Games. This year's Harmony Games, organised by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese, was held on 2 March 2024 at the Assumption English School (AES) and Assumption Pathway School, with the support of MCCY. Participants engaged in a variety of games including futsal, captain's ball, and e-sports featuring games like Mobile Legends and Puyo Puyo.

Starting as early as 7:30 am, participants gathered for breakfast together. An Opening Ceremony set the stage for the day's events and by 9 am, participants eagerly took to their respective game areas, prepared for challenging yet enjoyable competition. Under the theme "Getting to Know You More", teams were organised with players from diverse religious and civic backgrounds, fostering friendships among the youths. In addition, there were engaging fringe activities such as DartsLive, HADO, and VR experiences, facilitating further interaction and learning opportunities among participants.

The closing ceremony for participants, graced by MCCY Minister Edwin Tong and hosted by Cardinal William Goh, was attended by various religious leaders, with NCCS represented by Bishop Lu Guan Hoe. The flag for hosting the 2025 Harmony Games was then ceremoniously passed on to next year's organisers, the Singapore Taoist Federation. All guests and participants were then treated to a sumptuous lunch. PHOTOS.

Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA). NCCS, in partnership with the Ministry of Social and Family Development (MSF) is organising a sharing session on the LPA and Advanced Care Planning. The sharing session will include the following:

- The importance of making an LPA
- How to make an online LPA
- What churches may consider when organising their own talks and certification sessions
- Resource package that churches may use to organise their own talks and certification sessions.

It will be held on 11 April 2024 at St Andrew's Cathedral from 8.30am to 11am. We welcome your church representatives to attend the sharing session. Please register at this LINK.

Crisis Preparedness for Religious Organisations (CPRO) aims to raise the security awareness of religious organisations as well as to enhance their capabilities in managing a wide range of crises. The Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth (MCCY) invites your church to participate in this self-assessment checklist. Details are found in this LINK.

Give, and it will be given to you
