陈淑蕊姐妹（博士）是一位教育者。她热衷于和年轻人一起发掘上帝为他们安排的计划和跟他们一起同行在主的使命里。她目前在 Methodist Missions Society (MMS: 卫里宣教会) 担任驻留本地的宣教士。她和丈夫Rudy一起协助和支援 MMS (卫里宣教会) 在东帝汶里的宣教士和事工，也一起在雅德门卫理公会早上10:30 的英文堂参加崇拜。

1. 你身边是否有被埋没或忽略的家人朋友是你应该帮助和建立他们成长的？你可以采取怎样的行动？
2. 你是否注意到你身边那些在肉体上（饥渴、流浪，赤身露体、病痛或被囚禁的）和心灵上空虚，渴望爱和被接纳的人。你如何透过个人或小组的方式帮助他们？
3. 你如何运用上帝赐给你的恩赐和才干活出有宣教生命的人生？

Ordinary People, Extraordinary Faith

Esther Lim Si Xiu

Age 36, Christian Ministry Staff

As part of AMC Missions Month 2023, we bring to you inspiring stories of church members who have answered the call to share God's love with the nations.

Fresh out of university, Esther served for a month in Chiang Rai, where she had the chance to reach out to Thai students.

A Teacher's Love for Thailand

My first mission experience at 16 years old left a deep impact on me.

I spent a week in Chiang Rai on a trip organised by Hakka Methodist Church, which is the church I grew up in.

On that Sunday in December 2000, after I was asked to give my testimony of how I became a Christian in a village church, I felt God's presence moving me to tears.

While weeping for one hour, I sensed a call to serve in Thailand, so I responded by dedicating my life to God, telling Him that I wanted to be His vessel to share His love in this country.

However, as a single, young lady, I felt apprehensive about going back to Thailand on my own. Hence I studied basic Thai in university to equip myself with language skills.

TESTIMONY BY ESTHER LIM

Esther was moved when she saw how the local teachers and students heard about God's love for the first time during her school's Christmas outreach programme.

---

After graduating, I also signed up for OMF Singapore's STEPS camp. The camp answered many of my questions, such as how to discern God's calling in my life and how I could continue to equip myself even if I'm based in Singapore.

The mentoring sessions with the full-time missionaries also helped to reaffirm my decision to take small steps to explore a longer-term mission trip, so I signed up for Serve Asia, OMF's mission discipleship programme.

As part of Serve Asia, I spent a month in Chiang Rai, where I got to "shadow" a Singapore missionary family serving in a village. That experience helped me greatly in immersing myself in the Thai culture and learning the language.

More recently, I took a bigger step of faith to go back to Thailand to explore a longer-term mission experience.

For one academic year (August 2019 to June 2020), I taught Chemistry to the Grade 10 students at Chiang Rai International Christian School, which also gave me the chance to reach out to those who were non-believers.

TESTIMONY BY ESTHER LIM

Through daily interactions with the students, I came to understand the Thai culture and their beliefs even more. I also had the opportunity to share the gospel through an evangelistic Christmas event that year.

As a teacher, I've learnt that as I steward the vocational calling that God has given, He can use me as His vessel in ways that I can never imagine.

God is always faithful — even in a foreign land.

Even though I had fears of going for a longer mission trip on my own, He never failed to send people to journey alongside and be my prayer warriors.

Now that I'm married, I'm also exploring to go to Thailand for long-term missions together with my husband in the future.

But while I'm still here in Singapore, I'm taking active steps to be further equipped in sharing the gospel.

It's more blessed to give than to receive. Take that step of faith to explore missions, and you'll be surprised at how you'll be able to witness God's amazing love and providence first-hand.

As part of AMC Missions Month 2023, we bring to you inspiring stories of church members who have answered the call to share God's love with the nations.

Stay tuned for more!

Pr Anna Loo

Age 67, Retired Pastor

As part of AMC Missions Month 2023, we bring to you inspiring stories of church members who have answered the call to share God's love with the nations.

Pr Anna (second from right) during her recent trip to Timor-Leste, where she had the chance to connect with local pastors and bring someone to Christ.

For the last 30 years, Pr Anna has faithfully lived out her calling to prayer and inner healing, which includes travelling to countries such as China (pictured) for mission work.

Going only where God leads

When I first began mission work, I was worried that I wasn't learned enough; neither did I have many ministry connections. Many times, I would only have an impression from God of where I should go.

But the amazing thing is that, again and again, I experienced how God would open a way and prepare me well for the work. Hence, I believe that unless it is God who wants me to go, my labour would be in vain.

During the period of 2009 to 2018, I travelled several times a year to minister in the area of inner healing and train leaders.

The countries I went to include China, Sweden and Australia, and my intention was to reach out to the Chinese community in those places. I would often stay for a month in a single location.

TESTIMONY BY PR ANNA LOO

In reaching out to the Chinese community around the world, Pr Anna says that God has always prepared the way. All she had to do was follow.

Pr Anna with local church members in Timor-Leste, some of whom she was able to minister to and serve individually.

Once, God led me to Sweden. But when I arrived, I discovered that what I had originally planned could not work. I was moved to read the books of Isaiah and Revelation, so I read these Scriptures for two weeks straight.

Then on one Sunday, while on the way to church, I met a lady whom I had just gotten to know a week before. As we chatted, I realised that she had actually been longing for inner healing.

That very day, she introduced me to other members of the church after service ended, and more than 20 people came to my class on inner healing that afternoon. For the rest of the time I was in Sweden, I was teaching and ministering daily.

It is the Spirit of God and many acts of miraculous grace that have led me into mission work, step by step. God has been the one to pave the way, so that I can persevere until today.

I was also recently in Timor-Leste for 21 days.

Though I only had a short time there, I was able to meet a local pastor by chance and had the opportunity to teach the church on three occasions in a single week.

TESTIMONY BY PR ANNA LOO

I also had the privilege of serving the church members and led a Chinese lady to Christ.

Seeing the hard work of the missionaries on the ground and their love for the people deeply moved me. It also spurred in me a desire to set up a prayer platform to watch over the missionaries there and serve them.

I would like to share with the AMC community my concept of missions. Don't overestimate your own abilities – but don't say that you're not able to do it too.

Instead, be an arrow in God's hand, obeying where He wants you to go.

Do what He puts on your heart. Until a time He deems that your part is fulfilled, then resolutely and courageously step down from it.

From my own experience of God, whatever God calls you to do, He will provide and arrange all things.

As part of AMC Missions Month 2023, we bring to you inspiring stories of church members who have answered the call to share God's love with the nations.

Stay tuned for more!
