信息反思：

简介：

蒙上帝的恩典，张绍群传道在疫情之前在柬埔寨和其他全职宣教岗位侍奉了12年。回国后，通过上线的方式，他至今能参与在柬埔寨卫理公会圣经学院教课的侍奉。

因着对本区教会建立门徒有负担，他现在回到卫理公会三一堂的华语崇拜任职侍奉。张传道的妻子也与他在教会的宣教和福音工作同工，他们育有两个青年儿女。

1) 上帝要在我们的教会，生命，家庭和社会建立和看守什么？我们如何更加活出结果子和“不徒然”的生命？

2) 我们如何为了上帝的国度，更加彼此建立（使彼此更加锋利）？

3) 上帝要用我（我们）把祂的得胜和福音“射”向哪里？

Angelic Seah

Age 70, Finance Director

As part of AMC Missions Month 2023, we bring to you inspiring stories of church members who have answered the call to share God's love with the nations.

Missions at 70 years old. Why not?

I was 50 years old when I went on my first mission trip to Bihar, India.

I remember being in the office on a Saturday when my friend called and asked if I wanted to go with her on a mission trip organised by Church of Our Saviour's Tanglin Fellowship.

As I was contemplating this, a song by Don Moen (I Want to Know You More) started to play. The words were vivid and they spoke to me.

*I hear You calling me
To a place where I have never been before
Where Your love is flowing
Deeper than the sea*

Angelic was part of a small group of women from AMC WSCS that travelled to Timor-Leste in April 2023. There, they helped to teach the students of St Paul Methodist School to sew pencil cases.

Angelic praying for salvation and healing on one of her mission trips to San Isidro, Philippines.

TESTIMONY BY ANGELIC SEAH

I felt that God was telling me that He was bringing me to a place that I had never been before, and that His love for the people there was as deep as the ocean.

I was so touched that I broke down and cried for 10 minutes. Then I wrote a letter to my husband to ask if I could go.

Having visited San Isidro 3 times, Angelic has had the chance to do street evangelism, be involved in a mini crusade for villagers, as well as visit prisoners to share the Word of God and encourage them to believe in Jesus.

On that first mission trip, I was greatly impacted by what I saw during the five days of open-air crusades as we prayed for salvation and healing for those in the village.

Many of them were too poor to see the doctor, so they were desperate for prayer because it seemed that their only hope was to receive healing from Jesus.

Soon after that, I again felt the prompting from the Holy Spirit when I heard that our church was planning a trip to Prek Omperl Methodist Church in Cambodia to teach English to the children.

That was my first trip to Prek Omperl, and I went back on three other occasions.

Over the last 15 years or so, I have also been on several trips with different churches and ministries to countries such as Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Philippines, Timor-Leste, Australia, Tonga and Uganda.

Many of them involved salvation and healing services, while sometimes our focus was on street evangelism and medical missions.

The one that left the deepest impact on me was my trip to Uganda in 2010 because of two bombs that went off as crowds were watching the World Cup games in the capital city of Kampala.

Angelic has also joined trips organised by TRAC WSCS to Manila, where they partner with Oikos Helping Hand to minister to the poor. Her most recent trip was in March 2023.

Angelic has also joined trips organised by TRAC WSCS to Manila, where they partner with Oikos Helping Hand to minister to the poor. Her most recent trip was in March 2023.

The venue of our crusades was an hour's drive from Kampala, and we carried on with our plans in faith. After the crusades ended, we even had the chance to visit the home of the wife of the foreign minister to pray for her!

From all of these mission experiences, I have learnt about the transformative power of empathy and compassion (1 Peter 3:8).

Engaging directly with communities in need and witnessing their struggles can profoundly impact a person's perspective.

This experience often leads to a deeper understanding of the shared human experience and a stronger sense of interconnectedness. It can also reveal the significance of addressing not just the physical needs of others, but also their emotional and spiritual well-being.

The impact of missions also often extends far beyond the duration of the trip.

The relationships you build, the lessons you learn, the seeds of positive change you plant and the word of God that you share can have lasting effects on individuals and communities.

TESTIMONY BY ANGELIC SEAH

Approach missions with an open heart, a commitment to service and a willingness to learn, and you'll find that the journey is as transformative for you as it is for those you serve.

The Holy Spirit once brought this verse to mind, and it is one that still speaks to me.

“As long as it is day, we must do the works of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no one can work.” - John 9:4

This reminds me that when it is “day” – when a country is still open, when there are people who are alive and able to hear the gospel, when I am well and can go – I should not wait until it is “night” when there are no more opportunities.

My advice is that you're never too old to go for mission trips as long as you have the health and the passion to go.

As part of AMC Missions Month 2023, we bring to you inspiring stories of church members who have answered the call to share God's love with the nations.

Stay tuned for more!

Making sense of what God is doing in Myanmar

When travelling to Myanmar for work, Lester (far left) is intentional about seeing how he can partner with local ministries. Here, he is meeting up with a group of Christian students at a cafe in Yangon.

Over the years, I have been on short-term mission trips to East Malaysia, Cambodia, Timor-Leste and Vietnam.

But more recently, I had the opportunity to work in Yangon, Myanmar for 3.5 years from 2016 to 2019. Currently, I also travel there regularly for work trips.

Back in 2016, I was posted to Yangon for a work secondment, and the Lord spoke clearly through certain signs and the words of several fellow believers to say that He wanted me to see what He was doing in Myanmar.

In the two months I was there, I visited various local churches and Christian ministries in Myanmar and witnessed many wonderful things that the Lord was doing in the country.

TESTIMONY BY LESTER CHUA

Back in 2018, Lester attended a conference for Christian lawyers in Pyin Oo Lwin, Myanmar.

Back in 2018, Lester attended a conference for Christian lawyers in Pyin Oo Lwin, Myanmar.

Eventually, another opportunity came up for me to sign on for a longer secondment for two to three years. Again there were clear signs from the Lord that He wanted me to take it up. So I did.

I currently try to spend at least two weeks in Myanmar for each of my work trips, so it allows me one or two weekends to meet up with friends and get involved with some ministries.

For my recent trip in late August, I managed to carve out some time over the weekend to travel up to Shan state (the part of Myanmar that borders Thailand and China). While there, I met up with a few missionaries to find out how they are doing and give some updates on legal issues.

I also met up with a group of local Christian lawyers to encourage them and explore practical ways to help them through their challenges, as well as gave a short sharing in a local church during their Sunday service.

This trip reminded me of Jesus' words to His disciples in Matthew 9:37 that "the harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few".

TESTIMONY BY LESTER CHUA

Due to COVID-19 and the current country situation, many foreigner “workers” have returned home, and many local “workers” have lost their lives or fled the country.

Yet, for the few who have stayed behind, they observe a new openness to the gospel amid the worsening social and economic situation.

Apart from the paradigmatic “short-term mission trip”, there are many other simple and practical ways to get involved with missions. These include helping to organise collections for clothes, books or other needed items; teaching a language or a skill; or meeting up to pray for a particular country of interest.

My hope is that, as a church community, we can spur each other on and find creative ways to use the gifts, skills and talents that we have been given to contribute to mission efforts in the various countries around us!

Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few.

- Matthew 9:37
